

The Flag of Freedom Floats Above Our Warships

Whose mission is to protect our shores ---and FIGHT! Everybody is eager to know more about these superb fortresses which guard the nation's honor. We have arranged for our readers to secure for a merely nominal sum a Portfolio Series in ten parts, each containing 16 reproductions of special photographs, 160 in all, each accompanied by Explanatory Text, in which are described the vessel's armor, guns, engines, power, etc. In short, the very information wanted for a full understanding of the fighting and maneuvers of the fleets and single vessels. But this is NOT ALL you get out of the Portfolio Series for the islands which the ships will protect will receive their share of attention, and the reader feels on turning the last leaf that he has had Cuba illustrated in a manner to enable him to judge of the island's past and present. But he does not stop here, as considerable space in the series is devoted to another island realm which we may own some day. In some of the parts he finds Hawaii portrayed and everything explained which an American needs to investigate.

A SPANISH SPY ON BOARD

Tuesday Night's Capture on the St. Paul, Capt. Sigbee's New Ship, at Cramps' Yard.

WAS MONKEYING WITH THE MAGAZINE.

A Marine on Guard Detected Him and Promptly Threw Him and, After a Severe Struggle, Secured Him and Marched Him Before Capt. Sigbee, Who Condemned Him to the "Brig."

PHILADELPHIA, May 4.—The report that a supposed Spanish spy had been captured aboard the auxiliary cruiser St. Paul at Cramps' yard Tuesday night, is confirmed. Who the man is, Capt. Sigbee refuses to state, and all that is known of him is that his father was a Spaniard, and that his mother was born on Cuban soil. The suspect enlisted some days ago as an oiler, and almost from the time of his enlistment was under suspicion on account of his peculiar actions. Late Tuesday night a marine who was on watch below decks near the powder magazine, discovered the man acting in a suspicious way around the magazine. The marine lost no time in bringing the man to ground and a short and severe fight followed. The guard overpowered him, but not before the suspect had received a great gash on the right side of the face. He was taken before Capt. Sigbee for examination, and the captain committed him to the "brig" for the night.

SPANISH FLEET DEFEATED.

A Notable Victory Won by Admiral Dewey and His Gallant Asiatic Squadron.

THE GREATEST MODERN NAVAL BATTLE.

The Spanish Ships No Match for Those Opposed to Them—Engaged Both Fleet and Land Batteries—Two Ships Burned and Others Sunk to Prevent Capture—Acknowledged Defeat.

The May Days Would Like to Run It Mad, May 1, 6:20 p. m.—Admiral Sampson from Manila says that the American squadron under Commodore Dewey appeared off the Bay of Manila at five o'clock this morning and opened a strong cannonade against the Spanish squadron and forts protecting the harbor.

COMMODORE DEWEY.

The Spanish second-class cruiser Don Juan de Austria was severely damaged and her commander was killed. Another Spanish vessel was burned.

The American squadron retired, having also sustained severe damage.

A second naval engagement followed, in which the American squadron again suffered considerable loss, and the Spanish war ships Mindanao and Uloa were slightly damaged.

Annihilation of the Spanish Asiatic Squadron.

LONDON, May 3.—The details of the battle of Manila have been received at the British colonial office. They came in two cable messages, received Sunday evening, the substance of which has been furnished by the officials of the colonial office.

The first cable dispatch announces that the fleet entered Manila harbor at daybreak Sunday, stationing itself opposite the city. A fort opened fire on the American ships, whereupon they shifted their position to one near Cavite. In Manila bay, engaging in a fierce fight against both the forts and the Spanish fleet.

The engagement here lasted two hours, and resulted in the annihilation of the Spanish fleet. This dispatch adds that the American ships withdrew to their magazine vessel, in the center of the roadstead, for the purpose of coaling. One American vessel, the name of which is not mentioned, is said to have been disabled. Commodore Dewey requested the

IS IT JUST A SPANISH TRICK?

The Cape Verde Islands Squadron Said to Have Come to Join the Spanish Squadron at Cadiz.

Lisbon, May 4.—It is said the Spanish fleet which was at the Cape Verde Islands, consisting of the Vizcaya, Almirante Oquendo, Cristobal Colon, and Maria Theresa (all first class cruisers), accompanied by the torpedo destroyers Furor, Terror and Pluton, left St. Vincent, Cape Verde Islands, on April 29, destination unknown. The distance from Cape Verde Islands to the Canary Islands is about 570 miles, and the distance from the Canary Islands to Cadiz about 700 miles. The Spanish squadron being five days out from St. Vincent could have landed Cadiz by this time, standing at the rate of about 300 miles a day or a little over 12 knots an hour. But the Lisbon dispatch does not say distinctly that the squadron has reached Cadiz. It announces that the squadron "has returned to join the Spanish fleet near Cadiz," which may mean that the news comes possibly from the Canary Islands or from some source at Madrid.

At Cadiz the Spaniards are understood to be fitting out the battleship Victoria, the first class cruiser Cardinal Cisneros, Carlos V., Giuseppe Garibaldi and Alfonso XIII., besides the warships Numancia, Victoria, Destructor and several auxiliary cruisers and a number of torpedo boats and torpedo gunboats.

WILL PARDON CAPT. HART.

The President Has Promised to Set Free the Gallant Captain of the Fishhawk Laura.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—The president has announced that he will shortly pardon Capt. John D. Hart, of the filibustering steamer Laura, now serving a two years' sentence in the penitentiary for his Cuban filibustering operations. A delegation from the house, comprising Representatives Young, McLean and Hingham, of Pennsylvania, and Cummings and McClellan, of New York, called on the president to urge a pardon. The president, while refraining from saying when he would set, gave assurances that a pardon would be forthcoming.

Mrs. Hart, the filibustering captain's wife, awaited the party in the east room, and when informed of the president's assurances, expressed her gratitude, though disappointed that immediate pardon was not to be had.

A BACKWARD SPRING.

Brings Blood Diseases, Nervous De- rangement and Chronic Catarrh. Never was there a greater demand for spring medicines—something to cleanse the blood, strengthen the nerves, or regulate the digestion. Is there any medicine so good for these purposes as Per-ru-na? Thousands of doctors, druggists and tens of thousands of people of all classes and vocations have long ago decided this question—that Per-ru-na has no equal in these cases. Poor worn-out dyspeptics become strong, vig- orous and hearty after a few bottles of it. People who are pim- pled, bloated and sluggish never fail to find a course of Per-ru-na to clear to skin, invigorate the system and enrich the blood. Chronic catarrh in all phases and stages, cases that have defied the best of treatment for many years, take a few bottles of Per-ru-na to their entire relief. Nervousness, debility, weakness of both sexes, sleeplessness, irritability, despondency, hypochondria, all these disappear when Per-ru-na is used according to directions.

One of the most instructive books on chronic catarrh ever furnished free is being sent by Per-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Company, Columbus, Ohio. This book is very instructively illustrated with expensive drawings, and will be sent free to any address.

Secretary Geo. C. Atkinson, of the St. Bernard Coal Company, made a business trip to St. Louis and other Northern points last week.

The Barmley miners showed their patriotism last week by raising a tall flag pole and suspending therefrom a beautiful United States flag.

Among the new recruits thus far we notice a few miners who are willing to trade off a job underground for one that may cause them to face bullets.

Superintendent Rutland, of the Empire Company, has had a crew of men at work the past week, making improvements on their main office.

Superintendent Salmon, of Crabtree mines, takes quite an interest in the war, and the St. Bernard office says that he is supplied with the latest reports by telephone.

D. W. Umsted, M. E. for the St. Bernard Company, made some needed changes in the trolley line which conveys the waste matter from the slack washer at the coke works.

Thos. Steel, watchman for the St. Bernard at new South Diamond made friends at Sebrre a brief visit last week, and at the same time attended the Old Fellows celebration there.

China has coal mines 2,500 years old. The coal is anthracite and the veins of such a depth and the roof so good that railroad cars could safely be run into the mines and loaded.

A friend of Dick Croft's at Morton's says that when the report was circulated that the Uniform rank of the K. of P. might be called upon by the government to turn out, he turned rather pale, but we can assure him that there were others whose faces changed color besides him.

"Preparing for war in time of peace has always been regarded as a wise move by our different nations, and while the United States has taken some steps along that line, there seems to have been considerable in the part of the government in the failure to establish more coaling stations.

The Catholic miners were very much enthused by patriotic expressions made use of by Rev. Coenen last Sunday, when he voiced the feeling of the Church as made known by the bishop at Nashville, Tenn. He asked that the prayers of the Church be for the United States and a speedy termination of the war.

One of the most attractive illustrations appearing in the Globe Democrat last week was the one where Uncle Sam was seated in a coal scuttle, labeled as one of the most invincible weapons of war, which had reference to the fact that we were near our coal supplies, and the Spanish fleet when at Cuba was almost in a helpless condition.

Mine Inspector Stone, of Kentucky, will soon have the annual report for 1897 ready for circulation. It will show that the output of coal for 1897 was the greatest with the exception of year 1893. The greatest abundance of the year was the prolonged strike in the Jellico district. It commenced about May 1st, and continued with most of the miners until late in the fall. The coal output of the year was the second in tonnage, but had been set back in the fourth place. Hopkins County still remains first place, Ohio County advances to second place and Muhlenberg to third.

The engineering and Mining Journal says of the South Wales coal strike, "The strike of the South Wales coal miners is one of those short-lived actions for which the British workmen seem to have a particular liking. When there is a pressing demand for their coal they strike for increased wages and so make it impossible to supply their customers, as the requirements of the latter are great, it becomes absolutely necessary to obtain supplies from some other source. Now is the time for the West Virginia coal producer to introduce his product abroad."

The South Wales coal has always been celebrated as a steam coal especially for ship's furnaces and it is exported in large quantities to all parts of the world. Thirty years ago it had a complete monopoly, but the long strike of twenty-five years ago made it necessary for the steamship and naval authorities to find independent supplies now-days excellent steam coal is obtained from Indian, Australian, Japanese and Lithuanian coal fields, while the West Virginia coal is used by all steamers calling at U. S. ports.

Debt Due to Railroads.

At the annual meeting of the Little Rock Board of Trade the president, Mr. Morris Cohn, reviewing the work of the year, said: "For all that, we owe a great deal to the railroads. They have freely aided us in our efforts to bring people to our State and city; they have exhibited a praiseworthy energy in advertising our resources; they have shown a readiness in bringing manufacturing industries to our State and city, and they have already acceded to our demands for reduction of freight rates when we have complained and have given us the benefit of reduced passenger rates to celebrations and conventions. But the policy of railroads seems as much bent on meeting the conditions of competition, as ours that non-competitive points are sacrificed to prevent as we are told, an undue loss to the railroads. And this produces results antagonistic to the growth of a community which needs competition. It is without any adverse criticism of established railroad systems that I urge our people to make all possible sacrifices to secure another system of railroad which shall connect them with the West in conjunction with the Little Rock & Memphis Railroad. It is because Little Rock needs a new railway, that I urge a greater measure of self-sacrifice now, in voluntarily voting aid to new railroad enterprises, than would have to be shown if we had constitution which authorized a vote of bonds and taxes for this purpose."

While I was rather prim than merry,
Yet, when he was my own, I fell
How fond a lover near me dwelt.
Alas! There came a time of change;
He cared no more for home nor quiet;
His moods were reckless, wild and strange;
Night after night he spent in riot.
Returning home at night he found
Quite heedless of reproach or blame,
And so it went, till months were past,
I was too proud to hang or beat him,
Or pull his whiskers—yet at last,
He left me. Now I sometimes meet him
He has got used to his new life—obedience." "Do all things which he saith unto you," says Jesus, "that ye may abide in his love, and that your love may be perfect, that ye may never be ashamed before him who comes in the flesh." (John iii, 14.) It is not enough to obey God. We must do so willingly and cheerfully. When we obey, we are doing what "duty" requires. In learning, obedience is robbed of much of its virtue and would discourage rather than encourage others in obedience. (2) An implicit, trustful obedience. "Without murmurs and disputings . . . Forasmuch as ye have obeyed the Lord Jesus Christ, even as ye obey God, but with jealousy, doubt and argument? Would such obedience encourage others? Rather would it not discourage them. If Christians obey God doubtfully, how could we expect those who are not Christians to obey him. (3) Filial obedience. "That ye may not be ashamed and bring shame to the sons of God." As sons we are to obey God. The slave may murmur and doubt, but the son never. The work may be laborious, at times it may be disagreeable, and yet the son does not complain, for he is working for himself in preparing for his father. A son who is the heir, and therefore the fruit of his toil will someday take over the own. In working for God we work for ourselves, and if we can impress men with this truth we will increase their faith in the world, dispelling the darkness and making the world not only better, but happier.

PROMISES TO ACT HUMANELY.

Chief Aguinaldo of the Philippine Insurgents Will Back Up Dewey with a Big Land Force.

NEW YORK, May 4.—The Hong Kong correspondent of the World says: Chief Aguinaldo has arrived and has had a conference with the Consul Williams. He has agreed to submit to Commodore Dewey's orders, and he will conduct the land forces, and with the 30,000 recalled insurgents effectively back up Dewey when he gives control of Manila. He has promised to act in a humane way.

TO HOLD THE PHILIPPINES.

The Government Preparing to Send an Army of Ten Thousand Men to Hold Manila.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Telegraphic orders have been sent to San Francisco to engage iron steamers of the Pacific Mail Co., which will transport, without difficulty, an army of 10,000 men. Arrangements have also been made to obtain a supply of coal. If Dewey should ask for it, but the understanding that there is about 10,000 tons at Manila at the least, and there is good ground to believe that the supply is much greater, just that of El Cuyto is a belief with abundant apparatus for ordnance supply repairs. The principal problem, therefore, is to send enough men to garrison the city, and it is believed that 10,000 well-equipped American troops will be quite sufficient for this purpose. The present plan is to take all the national guard from California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Nevada, Colorado and the far western states. To these will be added a regiment of regular infantry, a regiment of cavalry, and possibly the Texas rangers and one of the new volunteer regiments. The command will undoubtedly Dewey's report comes, so that it may be determined what will be necessary to do to hold the Philippines as a base of supplies for future operations in the East Indies.
